

U. S. PLEDGED TO PROTECT GREECE

MORE POWERS
VOTED BRITISH
LABOR REGIMEHOUSE OF LORDS
DENOUNCES NEW CRISIS BILL

BY ED CREAGH

London, Aug. 12 (AP)—The House of Lords approved by voice vote tonight on second decisive reading the Attlee bill giving the Labor government almost unlimited powers in dealing with Britain's economic crisis.

The Lords' action on the bill, bitterly assailed by the conservative opposition as a dictatorial measure, came scarcely 12 hours after the House of Commons sitting throughout the night voted final approval in preparation for recessing tomorrow until Oct. 20.

The vote in the House of Commons was 178 to 63. Many of the members had gone home exhausted when the vote was taken.

Special Session Proposed

Members of the House of Lords denounced the bill vigorously before bowing to the action of the House of Commons. Before consenting to approval the Marquess of Salisbury, opposition leader, said the conservatives would press for a special meeting of the House of Lords in three weeks—during the summer recess—to consider any action the government might take under its "crisis powers."

Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison has already ruled out any scheduled session of the House of Commons during the recess, while leaving open the possibility of recalling both Houses in the event of an emergency.

The conservative motion for a special session is to be presented before the adjournment tomorrow, when the Lords will consider possible amendments to the crisis bill before giving it final passage.

If there are any amendments the House of Commons will be in session to deal with them. Otherwise the bill will be ready for the Royal assent which makes it law.

Churchill To Broadcast

Although he endorsed conservative charges that the bill gives "Hitler-like totalitarian powers" to the government, Lord Salisbury advised his followers to "allow the government to introduce such proposals as seem to them appropriate to deal with the difficult situation."

The Laborite Lord Chancellor, Lord Jowitt, questioned whether the crisis bill gave the government any authority it does not already have under a 1945 act which extended for five years the defense powers in force during the war.

Lord Beveridge, famed for his wartime "cradle to grave" security law, said the bill was framed in "totalitarian terms."

Lord Teviot, a conservative, declared:

"It would create in this country an enormous feeling of hope if tomorrow we woke up and found that Winston Churchill was prime minister, and he was followed by his team of intelligent men to deal with this economic situation."

The conservative central office announced that Churchill would broadcast to the nation next Sunday at 9:15 p. m. (3:15 p. m. CDT.)

Hottest August Blasts
Keep Midwest Gasping

(By The Associated Press)

Some of August's hottest blasts in nearly a half century kept much of the Midwest gasping Tuesday in torrid weather which forecasters said would linger several more days in many sections.

A mass of cool air which started down from Canada brought relief to the Dakotas, Minnesota, western Nebraska and the northern Rocky Mountain states, but forecasters said it was virtually stalled and needed another boost from northwest winds to send it eastward.

Such a boost, they added, may not materialize until Friday.

When the mercury passed the 90 degree mark in Chicago Tuesday it marked the seventh time in 10 days the thermometer reached that figure or higher. In 1900, only six days of the month were over 90. The record was set in 1944, when 12 of the first 15 days of the month recorded ninety or higher.

Showers fell in northwestern Iowa and northeastern Nebraska but the parched corn belt area did not receive any appreciable relief. However, scattered showers were forecast for most of the Midwest later in the week.

Because of a flow of warm moist air from the gulf, plus 100 degree readings were less frequent Tuesday. The moist air caused considerable cloudiness, but no rain.

Forest fires in California and some other western states and wood fires in northwest Louisiana were an aftermath of the dry summer weather. Forest service officials said the season in the California timberlands was the driest since 1924. Scattered showers gave fire fighters encouragement in Louisiana where the wood blazes have done more than $1,000,000 damage.

ODOM GETS BID
TO WASHINGTONGlobe Circler Invited
To Tell President
About His Trip

Chicago, Aug. 12 (AP)—William P. Odom will tell President Truman about his recent round-the-world flight Thursday, his manager said tonight.

Franklin Lamb, who has been handling the pilot's engagements since Odom's 73 hour, five minute solo flight ended Sunday, said that Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughn had proffered an invitation to the flyer to visit the White House. Lamb added that no definite time for the White House visit had been set.

Tomorrow, Lamb said, Odom plans to fly the converted twin-engine bomber, in which he made the world circuit, to New York where he will be guest of Mayor William O'Dwyer. The flyer's home is Roslyn, N. Y.

Lamb said Odom would be accompanied by Milton Reynolds, Chicago manufacturer who announced today that Odom has accepted a vice-presidency in his firm.

The manager said Odom probably would return to Chicago from Washington Friday and would appear at the Chicago Tribune sponsored music festival in Grant Park Saturday night.

CLINTON PICKET
LINE DWINDLESNon-Striking Workers
Live In Plant, Keep Production Going

Clinton, Mich., Aug. 12 (AP)—Negotiators today strove for a settlement of a two-weeks-old walkout at the Clinton Machine Co., where nearly 400 non-striking employees began a second night of self-imposed imprisonment.

Federal and state mediators moved in to assist both sides at settlement talks. They adjourned late today with a report of "no progress" but scheduled another meeting Wednesday.

A token half-dozen CIO strikers wandered listlessly about in 90-degree heat in contrast to Monday's mass picket line which was broken during a sharp fracas with non-striking employees.

The non-striking slept on company—furnished cots and ate meals provided by Company President Donald Thomas for a second night rather than risk another clash with pickets.

The 200-pound executive said the non-striking would remain in the plant "indefinitely" to keep production going.

The CIO United Auto Workers called the strike in a demand for a 15-cent an hour wage increase. They refused a company offer of eight cents an hour plus a production bonus.

Loyalists On Way
To Save Asuncion
From Rebel Attack

Buenos Aires, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Paraguayan government announced tonight that a relief column of Loyalist troops from the north had reached a point only 12 miles from the beleaguered capital of Asuncion.

Insurgent attacks on Asuncion itself were continuous and "increasingly violent," the government said in its communique made public by the Paraguayan embassy in Buenos Aires.

Paraguayans sympathetic with the insurgents claimed earlier that rebel forces had forced their way into the center of Asuncion.

Some refugees arriving at Clorinda, Argentina, reported that President Higinio Morinigo's forces in the capital were preparing strong points on the upper floors of the Bank of Paraguay and the ministries of finance and public works in anticipation of a possible rebel break-through into the city.

RUHR VALLEY
COAL OUTPUT
TO BE PUSHEDBRITAIN AND U.S.A.
WORK ON EUROPE'S RECOVERY

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

Washington, Aug. 12 (AP)—The United States and Britain agreed today to consider all problems directly bearing upon increasing coal production in Germany's Ruhr Valley in an effort to fire Europe's recovery.

As the Anglo-American talks got under way, chiefs of both delegations gingerly sidestepped any commitment on possible socialization of the mines, but did not rule out the chance that such an ultimate step, as urged by Britain, would be considered.

Willard L. Thorp, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, told a news conference that no agenda for the meeting has been drafted as yet, but said that "any problem" which has a direct bearing on the Ruhr's production could be considered.

Food Big Problem

Sitting at his side, Sir William Strang, advisor to the German department in the British foreign office, nodded a pleased agreement. It was regarded as a concession to the British viewpoint that the talks could not be limited to mining techniques alone.

This would open the discussions to a number of problems related to stimulating the coal output.

The subjects for consideration by subcommittees are likely to fall in these categories:

1. Food. Lack of an adequate diet for the miners has been held a major factor in keeping production down to its present level of about 225,000 tons a day, little more than half the prewar average.

2. Transportation. Already a major bottleneck because of wartime destruction and removal of rail equipment, this problem obviously would multiply in direct relation to increased production.

3. Management. This would involve policy decisions on such questions as giving Germans increased authority to operate the mines themselves, that of nationalization, and of providing expert technical advice. Asked about a published report that Britain and the United States already have reached agreement on future ownership of the mines, Thorp replied: "I don't always believe what I read in the papers. I just can't comment on that."

4. Housing. With living accommodations already cramped, this problem, as in the case of food and transportation, is expected to become more acute if additional workers are brought in to spur production.

5. Finance. Requirements for new mining equipment and rolling stock, in themselves, will mean a heavy dollar outlay. In the light of Britain's economic plight at home this may lead to a British request for revision of the 50-50 economic agreement for sharing occupation costs in the Anglo-American zones in Germany.

6. Exports. With coal demands far exceeding the supply throughout most of Europe, any plan for a general boost in the Ruhr's production may have to be supplemented by determination of how much Germany would be allowed to retain for her own industry, and where and to whom the balance would be distributed.

7. Coordination. A small executive committee will be set up to put together the findings of the other groups.

Solution of all these problems might well furnish a pattern for a general improvement of German living conditions later. Thorp told reporters it is not proposed to make the Ruhr an isolated bright spot in Europe's economic picture.

Buchenwald Camp
Leaders Convicted
Of Torture Crimes

Dachau, Germany, Aug. 12 (AP)—Frau Ilse Kosh, red-haired widow of a former commandant of the Buchenwald concentration camp, and 30 other defendants were found guilty of war crimes today by an American military tribunal.

The verdict against the entire slate of defendants, all officials of the camp, ended a four-month trial. Sentences will be pronounced on Thursday.

Frau Koch, 41, who became pregnant while in prison, was accused of sending tattooed camp inmates to death chambers so she could use their skins for lamp shades and purses.

Smiling Hughes Bids
Capitol Adieu, Says
He'll Return Nov. 17

Washington, Aug. 12 (AP)—All ports were alerted to bar Party-Giving John W. Meyer from leaving the country today as Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) announced the Howard Hughes hearing definitely will resume in the fall.

Hughes took off for California, meanwhile, disclaiming any knowledge of the whereabouts of his partly public relations man whose expense vouchers for girls and liquor figured in the inquiry into his war plane contracts, and Democrats cut loose with fresh criticism of Republicans over the affair.

Frank Dow, acting commissioner of customs, notified collectors at all ports to stop Meyer if he should try to leave and to take up his passport. Dow explained it was "just a precautionary measure" and that he had no definite knowledge that Meyer was headed for abroad.

Meyer disappeared when the subpoena under which he had testified expired last week. The senators' inability to find him again was a factor in the recess of the hearing which came about abruptly yesterday.

Hughes smilingly promised the crowd at the airport that "I'll be back" if the inquiry is resumed Nov. 17 as scheduled—and Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) promised it will be.

Ferguson, chairman of the Senate War Investigating subcommittee which recessed its hearings suddenly yesterday after two stormy weeks, told newsmen that "we are going to try the case right in the committee room beginning Nov. 17."

He made this remark in declining to comment on Hughes' statement that he had been "vindicated" by the break-off of the hearings. Ferguson declared he does not intend to carry on a press or radio campaign.

Hughes had extended a radio invitation to "the millions of men and women who helped pull me through this fight" to see him off at the airport "and shake my hand or let me shake theirs."

About 100 showed up, many seeking autographs. As the lanky multi-millionaire signed them good naturedly, a group of bystanders jokingly shouted:

"Hey, that's a blank check," Hughes told newsmen that "the people and the press treated me more fairly than I had any right to hope. I mean that. It has been a really great surprise to me because I was behind the eight-ball and I arrived here in the depths of despair."

FIRE SPREADING
IN PORCUPINESSlashing Blaze Runs Out
Of Control At Edge
Of State Park

Lansing, Aug. 12 (AP)—Tinder dry woods of the Upper Peninsula had state forest fire fighters on the alert today as they rushed men and equipment to combat a spreading blaze near the Porcupine Mountain "forest museum."

Burward Robson, chief of the State Conservation Department's field administration division, reported late this afternoon that one fire covering about 100 acres was out of control near the west end of the park, a 46,000-acre state park, purchased for $1,000,000 and which reportedly includes the only stand of virgin hardwood east of the Mississippi River.

He said "lots of men and equipment" had been sent to the area and that supervisors hoped to have the blaze under control by dark.

The fire, he said, was within a mile of the park boundary, but that a 14-mile-an-hour wind blowing from the southwest might drive it into Lake Superior and spare all but a small corner of the park if it was not controlled sooner. The fire was burning in hardwood slashings, Robson said.

"Several other" smaller fires were reported breaking out in the Marquette area this afternoon, Robson said, while others were reported in the Crystal Falls and Escanaba areas.

Cub Pilots Land
In Greenland On
Round-World Hop

New York, (Wednesday), Aug. 13 (AP)—William Strohmeier, flight manager for two ex-Army fliers making a leisurely world flight in a pair of light planes, announced early today that the pilots had landed in Greenland.

The pilots, Clifford V. Evans, 26, of Washington, D. C., and George Truman, 39, of Los Angeles, took off from Goose Bay, Labrador, shortly before noon (Central daylight time) yesterday.

Strohmeier said Evans was the first to land at Blue West One airport, about 40 miles from Julianahab, the capital of Greenland, setting his ship down at 8:28 p. m. (CDT) last night. Truman landed two minutes later.

The flight manager said he had been informed that the pilots would spend the night in Greenland, and take off during the day for their next stop, Reykjavik, Iceland, which is about 730 miles from Greenland.

Evans and Truman started their flight Saturday at Teterboro, N. J.

DETROIT HUNTS
FOR GASOLINECity Threatens Drastic Measures To Get
Needed Supply

Detroit, Aug. 12 (AP)—With a federal investigation pending of Detroit's gasoline shortage, the common council directed suppliers today to fill the city's needs by noon Wednesday or face "Spartan measures."

Frank Peck, president of the National Council of Petroleum Dealers, told the council at a special meeting that gasoline producers had agreed to furnish emergency supplies.

City officials have declared that unless additional gasoline is received by Thursday, city buses, police cars, fire department and sanitation vehicles may have to halt operations.

In Washington, Attorney General Tom Clark ordered the antitrust division of the Department of Justice to investigate the situation to determine if any violation of laws is involved.

The action came in response to appeals from Mayor Jeffries and Michigan's Republican Senators Vandenberg and Ferguson.

Oil company officials declined to make commitments at the council meeting on what supplies they could furnish. They said they first must confer with their dealers to make sure giving additional gasoline to the city would not violate dealer contracts.

The council asked the dealers to allocate four per cent of their total sales in the Detroit area to city use. Officials estimated the city normally uses that percentage of the 50,000,000 gallons supplied the city for all uses each month.

Council President George Edwards told supplier representatives that "we either get gas or we get around to taking Spartan measures to meet the situation."

He did not elaborate, but city officials have suggested one way of securing more gasoline would be to limit filling stations to operating only four hours daily. The city then would seize the unsold fuel stocks.

ACTION OUTSIDE
REALM OF U. N.

BY LARRY HAUCK

Lake Success, Aug. 12 (AP)—The United States today pledged action to protect Greece against what the American delegation described as efforts of Communist bands supported by Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia to set up a totalitarian regime in Athens.

U. S. Deputy Delegate Herchel V. Johnson told the United Nations Security Council that "the government of the United States will not sit idly by while the territorial integrity and political independence of a member of the United Nations are challenged."

Veto Aids Aggressors

Declaring that the United States was ready to join with other countries to protect Greece "with- in the provisions of the charter," Johnson said the United States was prepared, if necessary, to go outside the council for action.

"We do not consider that our obligations or the obligations of the United Nations are ended because the Soviet Union sees fit to use her veto to block constructive proposals (for a Greek border watch) desired by nine out of 11 members of the security council. It becomes all too clear that the veto is being used in defense of the aggressors of Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria."

"It is the view of the United States government that Greece is in grave peril.

"This peril results from the guerrilla warfare being waged against the Greek government by Communist-led bands actively supported by Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia and by the Communist party of Greece. It is per-

Michigan Veterans
Bonus Expected To
Cost $240,000,000

Lansing, Aug. 12 (AP)—Another $350,000,000 in Michigan veterans bonus bonds may be offered for sale about Sept. 9, State Treasurer D. Hale Brake said today.

Brake will ask the state administrative board next Tuesday to authorize the sale.

The treasurer estimated that $32,000,000 to $34,000,000 will be required to "carry the bonus payments through the big rush this year. That will take care of all but the stragglers."

Assessing bond houses already have expressed interest in the sale, Brake said he hoped for a sale price which would carry an interest rate of 1.473, that which was bid on the state's first sale of $200,000,000 in bonus bonds last March.

He estimated the bonus will cost Michigan about $240,000,000, compared with original estimates of $251,000,000 and the $270,000,000 authorized by vote of the people.

Artist Takes Job As Beach Guard

Iron River, Mich. — Anyone laboring under the notion that an artist is a sissy ought to shake hands with James McConnell. His girth grip would dispel the notion. "Gentleman Jim", a Michigan State college artist associated this summer with Walter Quirt in a vacation school of painting here, demonstrated over the weekend how physically competent an artist can be.

At the request of the county park commission, McConnell filled for two busy days the post of lifeguard at Pentoga park, vacated by the death of Pierre Pinero, 17, who was fatally injured in a dive in shallow water. McConnell knew the young military school cadet because the Pinero year-round home on Indian lake is not far from the cottage in which the Quirt family and McConnell are residing.

During War II, the powerfully-built McConnell served with the U. S. Merchant Marine, first as seaman, later as lieutenant, junior grade, and was commended for valor.

No Strike, But—

UNION miners of the Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Copper company have finally accepted the 10 cents per hour wage increase offered by the management after threatening to go on strike unless they received a bigger raise in pay. The miners agreed to withdraw their suits but received the checkoff and maintenance of membership clauses in their new contract.

President Truman's pocket veto of the mining subsidy bill doubtless was a factor in inducing the union to settle its dispute with the C. & H. management. During the war, the high cost deep mines of the Michigan Copper Country were given a government bonus to encourage production of the much-needed copper. This subsidy expired on June 30. President Truman did not sign the new bill, and since Congress adjourned before the 10-day period had ended the measure failed of enactment into law.

With this wartime subsidy now denied, Calumet & Hecla will be realizing less profit on its operations, and the union apparently decided it would be wise to accept the company's 10-cent an hour offer. The strike threat has been removed, but the discontinuance of the government subsidy is cause for new worry in the Michigan Copper Country.

The Copper Range Mining company, the other major operator in the Michigan Copper Country, has not resumed operations at its Champion mine since its miners went on strike many months ago. If the C. & H. had also closed its mines, it would have marked the end of a century of mining history in the famous Keweenaw peninsula.

On, Wisconsin!

ON May 29, 1948, the people of Wisconsin, the Badger State—those Wisconsinites who haven't seen the Upper Peninsula also call it "56,000 square miles of heaven on earth"—will celebrate the 100th anniversary of its admission to the Union as our 30th State.

Great plans are being made by the three and one-fourth million inhabitants for their centennial of statehood. Wisconsin has an outstanding State Fair record, and the centennial exposition at State Fair Park in Madison, August 7 to 20, 1948, promises to be an unforgettable one. Wisconsin is truly a great State. To realize that, one need only drive westward from Milwaukee or Green Bay to the Mississippi, across that magnificent expanse of thriving cities and dairylands. Such an excursion is an eye-opener to every American fortunate enough to take it. He gets a new idea of the prodigal assets bestowed on America by a wise Providence.

Once upon a time Delta County and the surrounding area were claimed by Wisconsin, and before that by Ohio. We were traded to the latter State for a narrow strip along Michigan's southern border which contained the then rather small community of Toledo. Many Upper Peninsula people have advocated the secession of the fifteen northern counties from Michigan, on the ground that we are too far away from Lansing, that we are cut off from the rest of the State by the Straits and the northern Great Lakes, and that we are tributary in trade matters to Milwaukee if not Chicago.

However, time brings great changes, and we find ourselves not so far from Lansing after all. Beyond a reasonable doubt there will be, before long, fast air service from Escanaba, Menominee and the U. P. from ranges to Lansing and Detroit, and it will help Michigan to realize its unity as never before.

Wisconsin is fine, grand, and colossal, and we'll be glad to help it celebrate next year's centennial. But after all, there's no other State like Michigan.

Marquette Is Fortunate

ALREADY having excellent hospital facilities, Marquette will be in a still more fortunate position with the decision to construct a 65-bed addition to St. Mary's hospital.

Marquette has two hospitals—St. Mary's and St. Luke's. On the other hand, Escanaba, a community of about equal size, has only one institution of this type—St. Francis. Even now, Marquette's hospital facilities surpass Escanaba's, and when the five-story addition is completed there hardly will be any comparison.

Citizens of Marquette and Alger counties have launched a fund raising project to assist the Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis in financing the expansion program of St. Mary's hospital at Marquette.

St. Francis hospital in Escanaba has been overcrowded for many months. Sometime ago, it appeared that the local situation would be remedied with a similar expansion program, but the project was later abandoned because it was felt the financial problem would be insurmountable.

How such problems can be met in Marquette, but not in Escanaba, is difficult to understand.

No Relief Yet

THERE'S no relief yet from the heat on the prairies, all of which also promises no relief to the hard-pressed buying public, which has found the high cost of living something out of this world of late.

Hopes for a bumper corn crop are being dissipated with the continuance of hot, dry weather. A bountiful yield of this major livestock feed crop, it was hoped, would tend to deflate prevailing high meat prices, but this eagerly awaited turn of events is now held unlikely.

Government economists suggest the possibility that meat supplies during the last quarter might equal last year's heavy volume because livestock is now being fed from last year's big grain crop. But it likely will be tough on the consumer from the standpoint of meat supplies and prices in 1948.

Here in the Upper Peninsula the agricultural news is reported to be quite favorable. Crops in this region have not been as hard hit by the drought and baking sun as in other sections of the Middle West. With crop prices remaining at high levels, Upper Peninsula farmers should fare well.

"HYMN TO JOY"

(Christian Science Monitor)

Among the quiet New England hills the other night, under the lonely reaches of the stars, the Ninth Symphony of Beethoven loosed its splendor on the air.

People far from the scene of the Berkshire Music Festival—in city rooms, on suburban porches—heard over their radios the Boston Symphony Orchestra bringing the mighty symphony to its triumphant last movement, where the chorus joins the instruments in proclaiming through Schiller's "Hymn to Joy" the blessedness and universal brotherhood of man.

During the last war a young anti-Nazi German girl wrote a letter to American friends which was smuggled out of Germany. In it she told of listening over her radio to the Vienna Philharmonic playing the Beethoven Ninth. When the chorus joined in the Schiller hymn, she wrote, they seemed to "sing from the bottom of their hearts, as though they were expressing the deepest longings of all the people of the earth for peace."

That was in the midst of total war. The other night it was in the midst of uneasy atomic peace. The same stars looked down—the stars that spoke to Schiller of a loving Father's reign.

The young anti-Nazi wrote that she wept as she listened, yet felt in her heart the joy of knowing that the law of brotherhood could not be forever hidden by the anarchy of war. Did any troubled heart the other night reach out through the botched, unhappy peace of today to the exultant joy that created the Ninth Symphony and that ordered the shining architecture of the stars?

In spite of the stupid slumbers and nightmares of men, reality breaks through to listening hearts.

POWER FROM PLANTS

(Arizona Republic)

How about growing a few gallons of juice for the automobile in the backyard? Or, if the winter chill justifies, a couple of tons of coal substitute.

Not as fantastic as it sounds because it is just an imaginative extension of the serious proposal of a distinguished scientist, Dr. Frank B. Jewett, until his retirement as president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, is suggesting research into the possibility of fuel from plants.

"I am not so sure," Dr. Jewett declares, "that even now coal, which is derived from things grown many millions of years ago, is more attractive as a starting base for fuels than solar energy derived from things still growing."

Dr. Jewett thinks that we should conduct research in the tropics to learn whether chemists cannot find in new plants some source of power either liquid or solid. He estimates the cost as cheaper than attempts to get power from atomic fission.

Being on the level helps you to rise in your own estimation.

"THEATRE" OR "THEATER"?

St. Louis: Will you please discuss the two spellings "theatre" and "theater" and help us architects to determine which is the better American usage? Most architects and architects' publications use the form "theatre"—F. R. L.

A. The word evolved thus: Greek theatron, Latin theatrum, French theatre. The French word is pronounced: tay-AH-truh, the "truh" being a barely audible, breathy vanish.

Now, centuries ago "theater" and scores of other French words ending in -re entered English, words such as fibre, metre, centre, ordre, calibre, capre (plant), genre, lustre, offre, diametre. However, the French pronunciations were too difficult for the Anglo-Saxon tongues of the English. They Anglicized the pronunciation of the words, saying FY-ber, instead of FEE-bruh, MEE-tray instead of MEH-truh, SEN-tray instead of SAH(N)-truh, KAL-i-ber instead of ka-LEE-bruh etc. And, of course, the pronunciation of theatre became THEE-uh-truh instead of the French tay-AH-truh. Washington.—If the average citizen still has any faith in the United Nations, it is because hope dies hard in the human breast. People cannot bring themselves to believe the only end is another war that will this time bring destruction to our own shores.

In recent months the feeling has grown, and particularly in congress, that a showdown on the United Nations is long overdue.

Influential men have been saying that the United States should call for an end to the U. N. veto. Some have said the same thing publicly.

They believe the moment has come to decide whether the U. N. is to be anything more than a sparring ring. If the Russians refuse to surrender the veto, then they will have no choice but to resign and a U. N. with new and far broader powers can begin to function.

But our government has another obligation before this happens. What is to make an honest effort to determine what are Russia's security requirements. We could put the question almost as bluntly as this: "You talk about security. All right, what is it you require for security?"

—McMAHON SENSES SITUATION—

Something like this proposal was made the other day by Senator Brien McMahon in a speech at Fordham University which got too little attention. Senator McMahon suggested that Secretary Marshall's proposal for a European inventory of economic needs be supplemented with a proposal for a world inventory of security needs.

Through the U. N. we would ask each member nation to state "from the vantage point of its own security" what it considers to be the requirements of a workable peace. If such an inventory could be obtained on a basis of frankness and honesty, it would go a long way toward relieving the fears and suspicions that today ride both rulers and peoples in large areas of the world.

There is another possibility which should not be ruled out. That is the possibility of a meeting at the highest level—a meeting between Stalin and Truman. The odds are a thousand to one against such a meeting; and the chances of anything coming of it, if it should occur, are almost as remote. Yet when the prospect is for another and more destructive war, nothing must be left undone.

Stalin and Truman have talked together only once. That was at Potsdam two years ago. The president had only a short time before came into his high office. The background of the previous Stalin-Roosevelt conferences was new to him. He felt himself bound by the commitments his predecessor had made.

In any meeting today, all that would be changed. The president would be acting in the light of his own policy of the past two years. He would no longer be a proxy for another man's will. In a face to face conversation he could make it unmistakably clear that our policy is not bluff but sober determination.

—MUST ERASE SUSPICION—

The obligation falls on us more heavily than it does on the Soviet Union to press unceasingly against the barrier of suspicion and fear. In many ways, Americans, both official and unofficial, have done just that.

Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith sent a now famous document to Foreign Minister Molotov some time ago. It listed 30 attempts by the American government to promote a better understanding between the two nations. Among them were proposals for an exchange of professors, for exchanging groups of artists and actors, for relaxation of the barriers to the free movement of ideas. In each of those 30 instances the Russians said no.

A few private citizens have managed to get into Russia since the war. It has taken months of patient effort to obtain the desired visa from Moscow. One was Prof. Percy E. Corbett of Yale University, who went with the expressed desire of expanding the field of knowledge between the two countries. The sober, factual account of his experience, prepared for the Yale Institute of International Studies, is a record of rebuff and frustration more revealing than tons of Anti-Russian fulmination from professional Soviet haters.

It is too easy to admit defeat before the door that Moscow has so often slammed. The only alternative to defeat is unremitting pressure that explores every avenue of hope, both through the U. N. and otherwise.

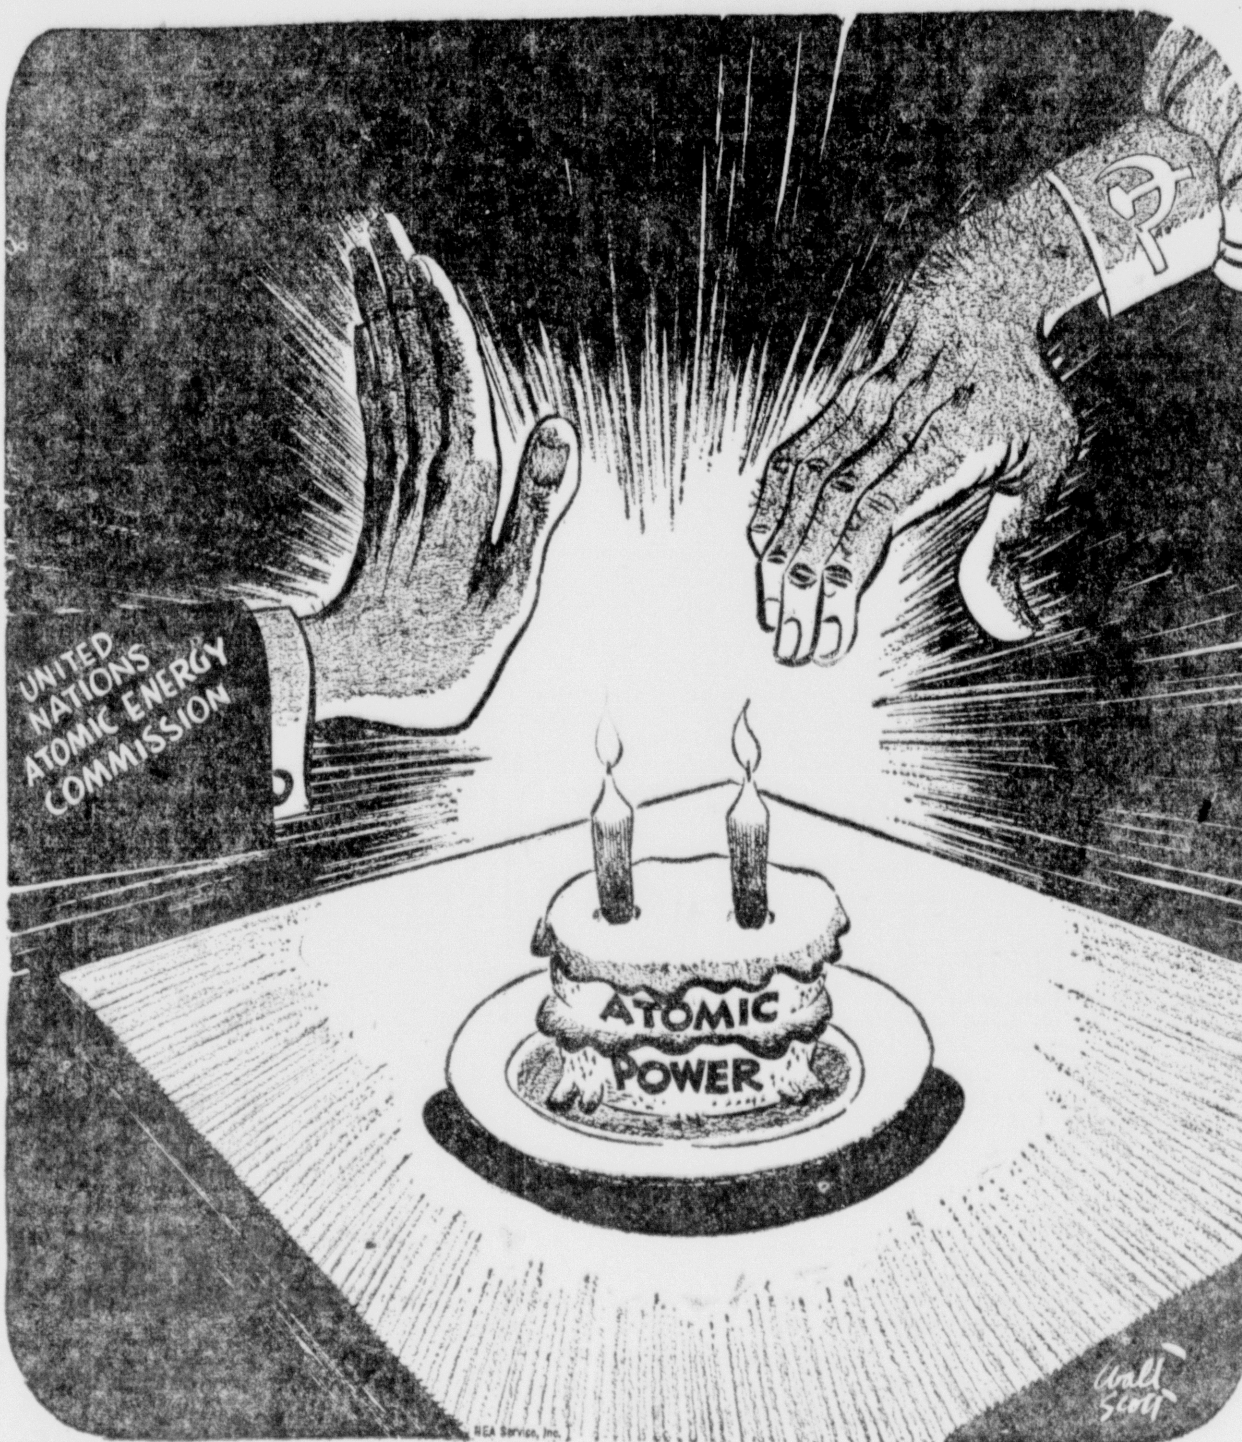

dialectal pronunciation "thee-AY-ter.") Early in the 1800's, when Noah Webster brought out his American Dictionary, he changed the spelling of many of the -re words to -er in order that the spelling would correspond with the pronunciation, thus: fiber, meter, center, order, caliber, caper, gender, luster, offer, etc.

Later, following the precedent set by Webster, the -er spelling became customary in American usage; but the -re spelling still prevails in British usage.

Now we see that "theater" conforms with Standard American. Also, it is noteworthy that "theater" is the only spelling sanctioned by the United States Government Printing Office Style Book, which is the guide book for all government printing, such as the Congressional Record and all documents, records, and publications.

A few -re words have not been changed to -er, however—words like acre, lucre, naere, massacre, and ogre. Here is the reason: If the words were spelled acer, lucre, nacer, massacer, oger, they would suggest pronunciations like "ay-ser, lu-ser, nay-ser, massa-ser, oh-ler," for "c" before "e" usually has the sound of "s" and "g" before "e" usually has the sound of "j."

Hollywood—Charles Boyer was telling me that this "Come wize me to the Casbah" business is a lot of hokey.

"I never said it," said Charles on the "Mortal Coils" set. The "Mortal Coils," as we've said before, has nothing to do with the way they used to refer to Shirley Temple in Brooklyn. It is heavy drama about a wife-poisoning suspect.

The "Come wize me" business is the inevitable snapper of Boyer mimickers. And there are as many Boyer mimickers on radio, stage, screen, at night clubs, clam-bakes and parlor parties as there were flying saucers a few weeks ago.

Boyer imitations, in fact, became an international affliction if not an institution after "Algiers." "But," says Boyer, "in that picture I never said, 'Come wize me to the Casbah' because I was already in the Casbah, so there was no place for the line."

All Perfectly Legal

widespread imitations. He cheerfully signs three to 10 clearances a month for persons wanting to imitate him. Not all his mimickers bother to obtain legal permission, but the movies, stage and radio, financially vulnerable and traditionally cynical, take no chances of lawsuits from anybody, including Boyer.

"Some of the imitations are pretty good as I see them," he said, "some are terrible." Most of 'em think that all it takes is a king-size French accent and that line about the Casbah, which he never said.

The Boyer imitation Boyer enjoyed the most was by Peter Lind Hayes. "Hayes was so good," said Boyer, "that I couldn't applaud. I felt like it would be applauding myself."

Note from Charlie McCarthy: "There is an ugly rumor going around that Bergen has turned legitimate actor (a role minus Charlie in "I Remember Mama") and that I am through. They also said I've worried myself so thin I can sleep in a pencil-sharpener. Let me say I'm enjoying just dandy health and am as happy as the day I killed my first woodpecker."

Q. Is it true that reporters and photographers were handled roughly by company guards at the Chrysler plant in Detroit?

A. Yes. They were either forcibly ejected or detained by the guards. Two of the newsmen were pushed and pulled through ankle-deep puddles of water. Although the company apologized, the Detroit Press Photographers Association charged "gestapo" tactics and told the president of the Corporation that it will notify every newspaper and motion picture photographer in the U. S. and ask their assistance in "ignoring" Chrysler Corp. in all future news photographs and news-reels.

Q. Did the donor of the Wightman Cup for tennis ever win a tennis championship?

A. M. r. s. George Wightman (formerly Hazel Hotchkiss) in 1923 donated the Wightman Cup for competition between teams of women players from England and the United States. She was national singles tennis champion in 1909, 1910 and 1911.

Q. I am a veteran of World War I who, in 1930, was receiving a non-service pension. The Economy Act of 1933 discontinued this kind of pension. Have such pensions been restored?

A. Pensions for non-service-connected disabilities, which were discontinued by the Economy Act of 1933 have not been reinstated unless the disability is permanent and total.

Q. Are wood processing by-products capable of being used?

A. Wood fuel can be produced from the sawdust and shavings of sawmills and planing mills; boxing and crating stock can be produced from forest waste as tree tops, large branches and small logs; and broom and brush handles and agricultural implement parts can be produced from mill and factory waste as slabs, edgings, trimmings and short boards.

Q. Can you tell me how to eliminate the knocking and banging in the radiator of my apartment?

A. Open the petcock at the side of the radiator to release any air which may be inside and which may cause the knocking and banging. If the noise continues check with the building engineer.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—As of the close of business today, this columnist is going to permit a little more peace and quiet in the life of Washington—at least as far as this typewriter is concerned.

Instead of being a problem to senators, I will be a problem to my wife during that annual period of sunburn, siestas and mental stagnation—the American vacation.

In my absence this column will be written by an old hand at the game. For a good many years, he called the tunes on the Merry-Go-Round. Maybe you've already guessed who he is. But if you haven't, you'll have to wait until tomorrow to get his name.

All I'm going to tell you is that he is the best reporter in Washington. And I predict he will be so good that nobody will care much whether I come back or keep on vacationing. In fact, some people will be delighted.

Meanwhile, and before I close up the typewriter, here are a few things I would like to get out of my system.

WHO WILL REPLACE DREW PEARSON?

Drew Pearson, author of the Washington Merry-Go-Round column, leaves his readers in suspense. He says that during his absence, the column will be written by "The Best Reporter in Washington, an old hand at calling the tunes on the Washington Merry-Go-Round." Aside from this hint, he leaves his readers up in the air as to who will write the column.

Tomorrow read the Daily Press to see who "the Best Reporter in Washington" is. We happen to be in on the secret and feel certain you will not be disappointed.

Making Democracy Live—the longer I live, the more I find that a whale of a lot of little people in this country are quietly going about the business of helping their fellowmen and making Democracy live. A lot of times we don't know anything about them, and I'm going to try to tell more about them in the future. Meanwhile, here are a few I've run into lately—Lyman Lantz, Garret W. McEnerney and the California commission on living war memorials are doing a fine job inspiring war monuments which recall the ideals for which we fought, rather than the weapons with which we fought—another hero without headlines is R. M. Davis, the West Virginia coal operator, who has been inspiring the people of his state to think about ways of winning the peace. Davis began life as a street-car conductor, never went to college, but started a statewide contest on a department of peace which made people think about how we can head off another war—near Philadelphia, an American Legion committee headed by Clarence D. Bell has just done a fine job investigating real estate operators and how some of them have abused veterans. They found that veterans sometimes were persuaded to sign blank agreements, sometimes didn't get back their down payments, and sometimes the same plot of ground was sold to several veterans—two young vets who have done a lot for Freedom of the Press lately are John W. Perry, Jr., and Farewell Perry of the Perry newspapers. They have shown how a special typewriter can be used to print small weekly or daily newspapers, thus bolstering what has been the backbone of press freedom—-independent newspapers.

Corrections—Before I get away, I want to correct something which may have done an injustice to a lady who has been working hard for this country—a Chinese physician, Dr. Margaret Chung. Some weeks ago Federal authorities informed me that Dr. Chung had sailed for Europe with Virginia Hill, the girl friend of the late Bugsy Siegel. I now find, however, that Dr. Chung sailed instead for Honolulu, where incidentally, she has done a fine job among the men in the armed services—also Billy Wilkerson formerly associated with Siegel in the Flamingo Hotel at Las Vegas, who sailed for Europe about the same time as Virginia Hill, informs me that he broke with Siegel a long time ago. His trip was to attend a motion-picture convention in Belgium—one more point. From a recent column on Pan American Airways wire-pulling, some people got the impression that Clarence Young, a former Pan American official now on the Civil Aeronautics Board, was in the pocket of his former bosses. As a matter of fact, Col. Young calls the shots exactly as he sees them. I consider him a fairminded public servant—speaking of fairness, one thing the senate committee glossed over about Elliott Roosevelt was that he flew 89 combat missions over enemy territory.

Senate Probes—Speaking of homes for veterans if Pan American Airways and Trans World Airlines had any patriotic public relations comp, they would immediately transform the two mansions they maintain for lobbying into homes for veterans. Both airlines operate swank houses in Washington for entertaining congressmen, cost of which is deducted either from taxes or airmail subsidies. Each house could accommodate several veterans and families—for many years I have watched senate probes, and most of them have been healthy. That's why I hate to see their effectiveness get hit in the solar plexus. However, that is what the present Brewster probe has done—The public is fed up with ballyhoo about wine, women and song for those in a position to influence the great air routes of the world. What they want is not a sideshow, but an impartial, thorough investigation, the kind Hugo Black did of lobbying or Ferd Pecora did of Wall Street.

Board Approves 4 New City Teacher Contracts

The Escanaba school board, at its regular meeting in the office of Superintendent John A. Lemmer in the junior high school building last night, approved contracts for four new teachers in the Escanaba public school system, bringing to 25 the number now engaged.

New teachers awarded contracts last night were Jean Belstrom, of Negaunee, a graduate of Northern Michigan College of Education, who taught at Onaway, Mich.; Elizabeth Jane Clarke, of Sparta, Wis., a graduate of the University of Wisconsin; Mildred Goode-nough, of Beloit, Wis., a graduate of Marion college, and Eileen Torphy, of Milwaukee, a graduate of Marquette university.

Miss Belstrom is an elementary teacher. Miss Clarke formerly taught at Phillips, Wis., and will teach science at the junior high school here. Miss Goode-nough will teach the primary grades, and Miss Torphy will instruct Spanish and English in the senior high school.

Teacher Conference

Superintendent Lemmer announced at the session that the pre-school teachers' conference will open Aug. 26 and continue for four days. Principal speakers will be Dr. John C. Sullivan and Dr. Marie I. Rasey, both of Wayne university, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Watt, of Escanaba.

The theme of the conference will be "The Problems of the Child in the School and Home." Escanaba and Gladstone teachers will participate, and parents of school children also are invited and urged to attend.

The board accepted the bid of the Michigan Construction and Engineering company, amounting to $901.30, for construction of cement work and removal of broken cement at the Escanaba high school and accepted the title of war production workers training equipment from the state administrative board through the state board of control for vocational education.

Schools Renovated

"More transfers of students from one school building to another will be necessary this year because of anticipated heavy enrollment in certain areas," Mr. Lemmer said. "Rooms and apartments are still greatly in need."

The customary renovating program in public schools has been carried on, he pointed out. The chemical laboratory at the senior high school is an example of the work that has been done, he said. Antiquated plumbing fixtures have been replaced, tables resur-

SUNDELL FARM HELPER KILLED

John Akkanen, 53, Struck By Gin Pole While Loading Hay

John Akkanen, 53, of Sundell, Mich., was instantly killed Tuesday noon on the farm of Eugene Neimi of Sundell when he was struck by a gin-pole which broke a guy line and toppled over during hay loading operations. Akkanen, who resided at the farm of Mrs. Lempi Neimi a short distance away, was helping his neighbor with the hay crop when the fatal accident occurred.

Mr. Akkanen was born May 12, 1894, at Wailpura, Finland, and had lived in the Sundell district 34 years, coming from Newcastle, Pa. He was a member of the Finnish Lutheran church.

After an investigation of the accident by Coroner Joseph Lambert and officers of the sheriff's department and state police, the body was taken to the Beulieu funeral home.

It also was announced that Gene M. Jones, of Escanaba, who has completed his work through military training and United States Armed Forces Institute, has been granted a high school diploma upon the recommendation of Edward Edick, Escanaba high school principal.

Of importance to students, as well as teachers, is this bit of information imparted at the board meeting—Escanaba schools will be opened Tuesday, Sept. 2.

to be on hand at drill tonight to pick up their Federal pay checks so that the roster for the second quarter may be completed.

The men are: Lowell J. Farrell, Dwight G. Arneson, James Beauchamp, Daniel E. Bergeon, Oliver G. Couillard, Martin H. Goodwill, Thomas J. LaValley, James C. Feltier, Wallace J. Posenke, Robert E. Ranguette, Raymond Z. Robitaille, Keith J. Thombley and Milford G. Young.

"Company C will conduct a concession at the Upper Peninsula State Fair and we request all members to make it a point to attend Wednesday night drill this week so that we may complete plans for this activity," Capt. Johnson said.

BASEMENT FLOORING

Engineers assert that because asphalt tile is smooth-surfaced resilient flooring it can be used successfully in basements. It is not affected by moisture which may be present when concrete is in direct contact with the ground.

BELL EMPLOYEE HURT IN FALL

3 Vertebrae Cracked As Defective Pole Crashes To Ground

Martin Hersel, of Iron River, an employee of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, is being treated at St. Francis hospital for three cracked vertebrae suffered when a 35-foot defective telephone pole on which he was working cracked to the ground about a mile north of Pioneer Trail park on the line along the Chicago and North Western railway tracks yesterday morning.

Hersel, employing climbers, was engaged in transferring telephone wire cross arms from the old pole to a new pole replacing it when the accident occurred.

Four cross arms carrying 40

telephone wires had been transferred successfully, and Hersel was just completing the job by untying the last wire, when the old pole, which was not lashed to the new pole, gave way and crashed to the ground.

The crew, with which he was working, was engaged in stringing new circuits to Gladstone from the Escanaba exchange, telephone company officials said yesterday.

Hersel was taken to Gladstone and placed in an ambulance and taken to St. Francis hospital in Escanaba.

IS DISCUSSEDCouncil Asks For Plan
To Convert It Into
Safe Place To Swim

Utilization of the quarry pool on North Maple street for bathing was the subject of lengthy discussion at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening.

Dick Wille appeared before the council to say he had the support of many citizens who are anxious to see that something be done to make use of the facilities of this pool and that a call for volunteers to assist in making this place a safe place to swim would meet with ready response.

City Manager James Dickson said the recreation commission, to whom the city would naturally look for suggestions, has never come forward with a definite plan as to what it wishes done and for that reason the council has had no definite basis for action. At his suggestion the council passed a resolution asking the recreation board to submit a plan for converting the quarry pool into a safe place for swimming.

Lawrence Stoken and Charles Gauthier, who own building lots at Elm street across the street from the quarry pool, appeared to request that the city close the open ditch fronting those lots. The city agreed to file and close 20 feet of the ditch to provide driveways into the property.

Milk dealers licenses were given Charles E. Watson, Henry Miller and the Hoholik Dairy. Miller is a new dealer here.

Miss Arvella Bauers Is Chosen Blueberry Queen

Beautiful Miss Arvella Bauers has been chosen the Manistique-Schoolcraft Blueberry Queen, and will represent Manistique and Schoolcraft county at the Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba on Tuesday, August 19.

Miss Bauers was selected queen at a contest sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce at the Oak Theater Monday evening, being given the highest score in a field of 13 candidates. While no data is available as to how the candidates rated it is generally agreed that charm and good looks were there in abundance. The Blueberry Queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bauers, 615 Garden avenue. She is a graduate of Manistique high school, for a while was employed at the J. J. Herbert law office and at present is a clerk in the Schoolcraft county welfare department. She is blond, is five feet four inches in height and weighs 125 pounds.

"It is all so wonderful; I can hardly believe it," she said in commenting on the honor given her. "I was so thrilled and excited that I haven't the slightest idea what I said when I got up to speak before the audience at the theater. I hope it was all right."

She was assured that what she said was fitting and proper and

Miss Mildred Kelly
Becomes Bride Of
Laurence Gardner

Miss Anna Mildred Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly of Cooks, became the bride of Joseph Laurence Gardner, son of Mrs. Mary Gardner, of this city, in a double-ring ceremony performed Aug. 9 at St. Mary Magdeline Catholic church in Cooks.

Rev. Fr. William O'Remus, who was celebrant of the 9 o'clock nuptial high mass, solemnized the service before a large gathering of relatives and friends of the two families. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Mrs. William Swar of Garden as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. During the mass, Miss Patricia Guertin sang "Ave Maria" at the offertory and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" at the closing.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline with lace inserted yoke, close fitted bodice, long sleeves tapering to points at the wrist, and a full skirt which ended in a long train. She wore a fingertip veil edged in wide lace, caught by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a silver rosary, and a silk handkerchief which her mother carried at her wedding forty years ago. Her flowers were red roses and white carnations.

Miss Margaret Kelly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Betty Jean O'Neill was bridesmaid. James Sangraw, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and Leland Kelly, brother of the bride, was usher. The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of Grecian rose and blue taffeta with matching mitts and halos. They carried colonial bouquets of white baby's breath and carnations with matching ribbon streamers.

The bride's mother wore an orchid crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray and white silk print dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink sweetpeas.

A wedding breakfast was served for members of the bridal party ty and guests at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony. A reception for 30 guests was held at 2 o'clock at the bride's home, which was decorated with garden flowers. The table was decorated in pink and white and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The bride is a graduate of Cooks high school, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Manistique high school. He served for four years in World War II. He is employed with the Manistique Pulp & Paper Co.

The couple left later in the day for a two weeks honeymoon after which they will be at home at 103 North First street.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. A. E. Seamans and children of Carroll, Iowa; Mrs. George O'Neill, Miss Marjorie Kelly, Betty Jean O'Neill, Harold Boucha, and Margaret Kelly of Detroit; Francis Black of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. John McCallum of Gould City; Mrs. Mary Gardner and Mrs. Heinie Weber of Manistique; Lee Kelly of Mansfield, Ohio; and Fr. O'Remus and Fr. Thompson of Garden Bay.

DETROIT TORSO KILLING SOLVED

Wife No-Good Woman,
Says Spouse, Admits
Fatal Quarrel

Detroit, Aug. 12 (AP)—Prosecutor James M. McNally said tonight that Harry Treaki, 50, machinist and former butcher and chef, had admitted the dismemberment slaying of his 20-year-old bride, Jean.

The prosecutor declared Treaki, in contrast to previous statements, took full responsibility for Jean's death, asserting he killed her in their dingy, one-room apartment and dismembered the body there.

Heretofore, McNally said, Treaki had attempted to involve others but admitted tonight in a formal statement he was solely responsible, acting in anger over her "chasing around" with other men. He called her a "no-good woman," McNally said.

Various parts of Jean's body were found in nearby alley rubbish heaps Sunday. Police centered suspicion on Treaki after having claimed to have found blood spots in his room.

McNally said Treaki told of striking Jean over the head twice with the handle of a meat cleaver as he finished cleaning chicken for their dinner at the apartment.

Then, McNally said, the middle-aged husband described how he stabbed the young woman with a beer can opener and, using his experience as a butcher, dissected her body with a small knife on the linoleum floor.

Treaki then cut off the head, severed the body at the waist, and cut off the legs, after which he wrapped the pieces in separate packages and disposed of them in the alley, according to McNally.

The prosecutor said a murder charge would be brought.

Arson, Massacres Rage In Lahore; 100 Counted Slain

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 12 (AP)—Paul West, 24, of Muskegon, Mich., was charged with arson today after Sheriff Claude E. Houser said the man admitted setting fire to a Mishawaka home.

The sheriff said West told him the owner of the fire-damaged home had hired him to set the blaze to clear a $1,000 debt on the house through a fire insurance policy.

West, a factory worker described as a part-time South Bend resident, said the owner of the house promised him a 1937 model automobile and $150 for the job, Sheriff Houser reported.

The officer quoted West as saying he emptied 10 gallons of gasoline on the floors, set the fire and then fled in his automobile.

West said the owner had left the gasoline in the house for the job, the sheriff said.

West was charged with arson in an affidavit filed by Deputy Prosecutor Leo O. Cook. His bond was set at $5,000.

Authorities said they were searching for the owner of the home, who they said left here two days before the fire.

Canada Hints Ban On Newsprint If U. S. Cuts Off Coal

Ottawa, Aug. 12 (AP)—A partial embargo against the shipment of Canadian newsprint to the United States was seen in some official quarters tonight as a counter-move to Washington's decision to ban temporarily movements of U. S. coal over Canadian National Railways lines.

A high government official read this interpretation in a statement in Montreal by C. N. R. President R. C. Vaughan expressing hope the U. S. action would not result in "our inability to provide all the cars needed for paper loading to the United States."

"It's a threat," the official said, adding that, so far as was known here, the C. N. R. had not communicated it as such to the U. S. office of defense transportation.

While the proposed U. S. step was seen here as jeopardizing reserves of coal for home, industrial and railway purposes, a slowdown on newsprint movements over the C. N. R. also would hit hard at a major American industry.

Civilians In Greek Villages Armed To Fight Guerillas

Athens, Aug. 12 (AP)—Carefully selected armed civilians will be given the task of defending villages liberated from guerillas while regulars of the Greek army will concentrate on hunting down the Leftists in the mountains of northern Greece, it was learned tonight.

A highly placed informant said the plan called for the placing of a large quantity of arms in the hands of villagers. The plan was made on the basis of a "calculated risk," the source said, explaining that there was fear that some of the arms might fall into the hands of the Leftists.

Indonesia Invited

After three hours of debate this afternoon, the council voted 8 to 3—with Britain, Belgium and France in the minority—to invite a representative of the Indonesian republic to the table for discussions on the Indonesian case. Former Premier Sultan Sjahrir was named to represent the East Indies republic.

The Netherlands, represented as a non-member of the council, also opposed the invitation on the grounds that Indonesia was not a sovereign state. The ballot was on a procedural question and thus not subject to veto by Britain or France.

TOP DIPLOMATS FLYING TO RIO

Vandenberg Works With
Marshall On Defense
Treaty Mission

BY MILT DEAN HILL

Washington, Aug. 12 (AP)—This country's top foreign policy team flies to Rio de Janeiro tomorrow to write an historic inter-American treaty and perhaps a new chapter in bipartisan cooperation.

Secretary of State Marshall and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) are to take off together tomorrow morning for the first major international mission the senator has attended since Marshall succeeded James F. Byrnes as secretary.

With them in the original president plane called "The Sacred Cow" will go Warren R. Austin, American representative to the United Nations and former Republican senator from Vermont.

President Truman will go to the airport personally to see them off at 8 a.m. (CDT) tomorrow. He held a final conference with Marshall at the White House today, following a similar meeting yesterday.

The conference of the hemisphere foreign ministers convening Friday will afford Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, an opportunity to extend GOP cooperation with and participation in administration foreign policy to the inter-American sphere.

Fenway Park Still Jinx For Senators; Red Sox Win, 2 to 1

Boston, Aug. 12 (AP)—Scoring twice in the ninth inning, Boston's Red Sox today defeated the Nats 2-1 for their seventh straight Fenway Park triumph over the Washingtonians who haven't won here yet this season.

The victory was credited to Southpaw Mickey Harris, who pitched the ninth after starting Denny Galehouse had been lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Johnny Pesky walked to open the home ninth, was sacrificed to second by Dom DiMaggio and scored the tying run on Bobby Doerr's center field single.

Jake Jones, who pulled a freak double play in the fifth, unloaded a three bagger to distant right center, to send in Bobby with the winning run.

The lone Washington run came in the opening inning which Joe Grace started by singling to right field. He went to second on Buddy Lewis' infield out and scored when Mickey Vernon drilled a double off the left field fence.

In the Washington fifth with one out Rick Ferrell singled to left and went to third on Pitcher Early Wynn's two bagger off right field grandstand wall. Grace bounded to retire the Washington batsman and then ran over to leftfielder and then ran over to third, where Wynn had joined Ferrell, and tagged out the Senator hurler.

State Police Help In Owosso Strike; Two Men Beaten Up

Owosso, Mich., Aug. 12 (AP)—State police were ordered into Owosso tonight after the reported street beating this afternoon of two non-strikers at the Midwest Abrasive Company.

Police Chief Ted Rice said the unidentified assailants dragged Harlow Jones, former Army colonel, and L. Pittman from their automobile and beat them on the plant. Both were beaten, though not seriously hurt, Rice said.

The AFL's Federal Union, Local 234-837, has been on strike against the company in a wage demand. The plant employs 200 men.

Chief Rice and Mayor Kenneth F. Crawford joined in a call for help to the governor's office at Lansing following the reported beatings. Rice said his police had worked day and night since the start of the strike and were unable to meet any emergency.

A detachment of state troopers arrived from the Paw Paw post in answer to the call for aid. Capt. William Babcock, in command, said the troopers would be posted at the plant "to preserve law and order."

MISS PAT PERRY CHOSEN QUEEN

16 Year Old High School
Girl Selected From
List Of 14

Munising — Miss Patricia Perry, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perry, Munising, was selected Queen of Munising and Alger county by the board of supervisors of the Munising Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Perry was selected from a list of 14 nominees for the title. As a sophomore in the Mather high school last year, Miss Perry was in the public eye many times while parading as drum majorette of the local school band.

Sports minded Miss Perry rooted enthusiastically at every football and basketball game the local team played and during her sophomore school days was a member of the Girl's Athletic Association. During the summer months she gains diversion from her summer work by horse back riding and fishing in Lake Superior and in the many trout streams throughout the county.

Miss Perry is 5 feet 3 1/2 inches tall and weighs 116 pounds. She has brown eyes and brown hair supplemented by an engaging smile which has made many friends for her throughout the school and city.

Chamber of Commerce officials said yesterday that no city appearances have been planned as yet for the queen, but that she will leave for Escanaba to compete in the U. P. Fair Queen contest on Tuesday, August 19.

Yesterday afternoon, the queen, accompanied by Miss Flora Smith made a shopping tour of Munising to select a wardrobe. Tentative plans call for her costume to represent the fishing sport which is prominent in this vicinity, but no definite announcement was made.

Golden Anniversary Celebrated Tuesday By Rosewood Couple

Munising—Approximately 25 friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Olmstead gathered at Rosewood, near Munising yesterday to celebrate the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. A dinner was held during the afternoon, followed by "open house."

Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead, natives of Munising and vicinity, are the parents of four daughters and seven sons, all present at the celebration yesterday. They are also grandparents of 30 children and have one great grandchild, Donna Aslan of Detroit.

Present at the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Frances Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. William Proctor; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Olmstead and daughter, Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olmstead and son, Albert; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Olmstead and family, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Olmstead, Earl Olmstead, Mrs. Agnes LeVeque, and Arthur Olmstead, all of Munising.

Casino Bird Food Patches Drying Up

Munising—Casino Wildlife Experiment Station personnel are having weather worries lately as high temperatures and hot winds continue to dry out 10 acres of bird food patches planted with buckwheat, field peas and rape seed as an experimental food supply for prairie chicken and sharp-shinned grouse.

The trouble all started on July 31 when cold weather and frost laid the state killed the buckwheat, which up until then had been flourishing. Losing of that crop was taken with a grain of salt by the station personnel and they went ahead with work to bring about a bumper harvest of the peas and rape seed. However, when the hot weather of the past week hit the area and a plague of grasshoppers descended on the food patch, the entire crop was ruined and Casino officials wrote the experiment off as a "failure."

The food supply for the prairie chicken and grouse is still good however, station officials say, as the grasshoppers which seem to be in abundance this year, are digestible by these feathered friends. This winter, however, when the grasshoppers are gone and there's no food patch at the station, the birds might have some difficulty finding food, which still leaves Casino personnel with a problem, the officials said.

Chicago scored first in the fifth. Schmitz and Stan Hack singled with none out, and then Schmitz scored from third when Eddie Waitkus hit into a double play.

The Cardinals tied it in their half of the fifth on Del Rice's double and singles by Hearn and Red Schoendienst.

And among other Escanaba Golf club linksmen competing will be Don St. Cyr, a consistent par-shooter with two aces to his credit; Bob Sjoberg, Vernon Kolb, Chuck Harvey, Kirby Treiber, Hilmer Johnson, Leo Vinge, Hugh Kitcher, Jack Sullivan, Johnny Ferrari, Tony Cass, Joe Poffenberger and Wendell Green.

Expect Record Entry
Other aces ready to make a bid tomorrow are Stan Anderson, 1942 champion from Ishpeming; Dr. Robert Berry, Marquette, who won the 1940 title over the same two Menominee courses; Bill Connor, who has a 34-32-66 Marquette course record to his credit this season, and the rugged Frank Hruska, Menominee's pride and joy, who won the U.P. title in 1939.

Paul Christensen, Menominee, general chairman of the meet, expects a record breaking entry to assault the $900 worth of prizes, largest prize list in the history of the tourney.

The finals will be played over the Riverside course next Sunday morning.

An innovation will be tried this year with a 32-man championship flight instead of the customary 16-man flight. Following the qualifying round the low 32 players will be selected for the championship flight while the others will be bracketed in flights of 16 each with as many flights as there are players. Prizes will be the same for the first flight as the sixth or seventh. Christensen said, thus affording every entry equal chance at the valued prizes.

Tough for Champ
A 32-man championship flight should make better competition and will be a tough road for the champion. Marquette, So, Houghton, Ironwood, Iron Mountain, Escanaba and Menominee golfers have been plastering their home courses and several have made trips to Menominee to get in a practice round or two on North Shore and Riverside courses.

Hruska has been doing all right in his own backyard, playing par golf or better in his practice rounds and Glenmore Thompson of Menominee, a quarter-finalist last year at Highland in Escanaba, before he was eliminated by Swanson of Escanaba, runner-up to Don Feller, Escanaba champion.

Among the other hotshots who should be in the championship flight bracket are Ken Liljedahl, who set a nine-hole mark of 31 and 68 course record at Riverside recently, Hugh Hogle, Francis Bourgeois and Thomson of Riverside, and Rosco Labreche, Harold DeGayer, Hugh Cavill, Bruce Christensen, Gordon Larsen, Harry Korbully, Jean Kreuz and Tony Stauber of North Shore.

IT'S A BIG ONE — Cliff Weir, 1014 Lake Shore Drive, is right proud of these two beauties, particularly that number on his left, which scaled 15 and one-half pounds and measured 43 inches. It was caught three-quarters of a mile out in Little Bay de Noc in "front" of Weir's residence. Young Louis Kintzinger, Lake Shore Drive, was with Cliff at the time. Weir has caught as many as 26 of these Northern pike in one week.

PUNCH IS GONE; TIGERS DROP 2

Cleveland Takes Opener 3 To 1; Finale Is 11-0 Shutout

Cleveland, Aug. 12 (P) — Al Gettel pitched a one-hit game tonight against the Detroit Tigers, the single safe blow being a double by Eddie Mayo that came in the first inning. The Indians won, 11 to 0, after taking the first game of a two-night double-header 3 to 1.

The 29-year-old right-hander's best performance before tonight was a two-hit contest against the same club last year, when Gettel was with the Yankees.

The lone hit went through the shortstop position as Jack Conway broke toward second base on the hit and run. Conway was subbing at the position for Manager Lou Boudreau, benched with an ailing leg.

The Tribe accompanied Gettel's hurling performance with a barrage of 15 hits against three Tiger pitchers.

Gettel came to the Tribe last winter in a trade with the Yankees which included himself, Hal Peck and Eddie Boekman in exchange for Cleveland's Ray Mack and Sherman Lollar. Both Mack and Lollar now are playing with Newark in the International league.

Gettel walked only two men and struck out three. It was his sixth win against six losses.

The batting duel between Boudreau and George Kell, Detroit third baseman, found Kell dropping to 333 as he hit once in six trips, the idle Tribe manager holding the lead at 3-0.

A crowd of 34,756 was on hand to see Steve Gromek defeat Hal Newhouse in the opener, though Gromek had to retire after eight innings in favor of Fireman Ed Klemm. It was Gromek's third victory and Newhouse's 12th loss against 11 wins.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

BY JIM WARD

CUFF NOTES: The Escanaba Legion drum corps will perform at the U. P. all-star football game in Negaunee next Saturday . . . Bill Smith, Escanaba, was as pleased as punch to be invited to play in the all-star game along with his buddies, Don Bichler, Dave Freits and Jack Peterson . . . All were on the 1947 Eskymo track team as well.

Although Escanaba faded out of the Class A picture at the U. P. softball meet in Negaunee, it can well be proud of its showing . . . Two all-Escanaba finals is nice pitching . . . Incidentally, that was Club 314 that beat Stonington, 17-10, and Public Utilities defeated the Negaunee Whiz Kids, 11-1 . . . The Marquette Shoreland Bats beat the Escanaba Paper Mills, 8-4, in 10 innings and it was tied at 1-all, not 4-all . . . Evidently, the wires between Negaunee and Escanaba were crossed.

Independent football is about to blossom in the U. P. . . Mugs Gingsass' Ishpeming eleven already is holding regular practice sessions . . . Ishpeming has taken the lead in promoting a U. P. independent loop . . . When Dave MacMillan, University of Minnesota basketball coach, finishes his chores at the U. P. coaches clinic in Marquette this week, he'll trek to Madison, where he will serve Aug. 18-23 on the staff of the Wisconsin coaches' clinic.

Pete Trudell, Negaunee, president of the Northern Michigan Sportsmen's association, says the annual meeting of the organization will be held in Norway Sept. 14 . . . The meeting is open to all sportsmen . . . Art Weng, new U. P. Old Timers' golf king, hails from Daggett but plays golf for Menominee's North Shore club.

W. J. Schiebler, Iron River, was the oldest participant in the U. P. Old Timers' golf tourney . . . The 1948 meet was awarded to Iron River, which pulled a majority vote after Iron Mountain withdrew in favor of the Iron county club . . . The event originated in Escanaba in 1939 and the first two meets were held here.

Jerry Evert, Chicago, upset his brother, Jimmy, for the men's singles tennis championship of Wisconsin . . . They paired to win the Badger doubles title . . . Jimmy Evert competed in meets in the Upper Peninsula before the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, of Marinette, who are well known to Escanaba yachtsmen, recently returned from a two-week cruise aboard their 22 square meter sloop Rinette IV with two more racing victories . . . In Milwaukee, they successfully defended the Lake Michigan 22 square meter trophy . . . And to that they added the trophy for the Sturgeon Bay-Door Peninsula event on the bay side of the peninsula.

STRONG FINISH BEATS DODGERS

Boston Collects 7 Runs In 8th And 9th To Take 9-2 Decision

Brooklyn, Aug. 12 (P) — Bob Elliott broke up a 2-2 tie in the eighth inning with a two-run homer to highlight a four-run frame and the Boston Braves went on to whip the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field tonight 9-2. The defeat left the Dodgers still three games in front of the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals who lost a 2-1 decision to the Chicago Cubs in the afternoon.

Carvell Rowell, opened the eighth against Ralph Branca with a single and Elliott then blasted his fifteenth round tripper. When Connie Ryan tripled with two out, Branca was removed in favor of Hank Behrman, who was pelted for the next two runs. Behrman was knocked out in the ninth when the Braves added three more.

Bill Voiselle, who pitched six hit balls, was relieved by Clyde Shoun in the eighth. Voiselle received credit for his fourth victory. The ex-Giant pitcher weighed in with two singles which figured in Boston's run-scoring. Phil Masi also hit a homer for the Braves.

Perronville, Aug. 12—A big fifth inning was all Hermansville needed to repulse the Perronville nine in a Cloverland league clash here Sunday. Hermansville counted four runs in that can'to to edge the home nine, 4-3.

Four consecutive hits did the trick. Pieropon and Floriana each got two for four, T. Machalk two for three and Danl fattened his batting average with three safeties in four trips to the plate.

BROWNS BUMP WHITE SOX, 5-3

Chicago, Aug. 12 (P) — Glenn Moulder, who previously won two games in 24 relief assignments, tonight won his first major league game as a starting pitcher in defeating the Chicago White Sox for the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 3.

Moulder, drafted by St. Louis from Brooklyn's Montreal International league farm last winter, tired in the ninth after the White Sox scored twice. He was replaced by Jack Kramer after pitching a third single to Luke Appling and walking Cass Michaels.

Kramer then struck out Skeeter Dickey and got Bob Kennedy, a pinch batter for Bob Gillespie, fourth Chicago pitcher, on a pop to Billy Hitchcock.

Don Kolloway doubled Luke Appling and Michaels across. Alph Hodgins grounded to Hitchcock for the final out.

The Browns scored in the first on a pass to Bob Dillingier, two infield outs and Jeff Heath's single. In the third St. Louis added three more on two hits, Frank Papish's two-base throwing error plus a walk.

Les Moss's fourth inning double accounted for the winner's fifth run.

Chicago's first run was the result of Dave Philley and Appling singles plus Michael's double play roller in the second.
